Come along and find out at our Camp
9 Days – Horses, Cows, EQS, HERD, Fun & Learning
Bigger, Better and More than ever before
Jindabyne Equestrian Centre
January 2011

Come along and enjoy the BEST combined Horsemanship & Cow working Camp

Put your well learned 'principles' to a 'purpose'

See how your horse responds to having a 'job' to do

See how the principles of horsemanship can help work cows

The International Horsemen's Institute presents a 9 day Residential Camp at Jindabyne Equestrian Centre in the beautiful High Country of NSW.

You will arrive on the afternoon of Monday 3rd January and enjoy a 'meet and greet' in the evening, before a fabulous dinner the first night. The course (first half) starts on Tuesday 4th January until Saturday 8th Jan. Sunday 9th is a 'rest day' to allow you to relax. The second half of the course runs from Monday 10th through Thursday 13th with a celebratory dinner to cap off an awesome 9 days. Departure is Friday 14th.

Indulge yourself with not one but two International Horsemanship Instructors, with working cow knowledge and experience
Birger Gieseke (IHI Germany) - European Working Cow Horse Champion plus
Tony Lander (IHI Australia) – Owner of a small commercial Beef herd in NSW

You will cover topics such as –

- Horses & Cows – differences and similarities
- Cows – moving, stopping, holding with and without horses
- Horses – motivation and interest
- Humans – where, when and how to be around cows
- Things to do with cows and horses
